ST. JOSEPH COUNCIL 4810

GREENLAWN NEW YORK

MAY-JUNE 2011

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Happy Easter to all my brothers and your families,

On 3/19/11 I attended my first intention is a celebration hosted by Lou Pryor with help from his leprechauns. It was a blast! We had a wonderful turnout that included Father Greg who wound up winning a raffle that he used to select the fantastic soda bread made by our own Jim Hanley.

The following day was the Birth Right party hosted by St. Thomas More Council. Special thanks to our own George Pozderic for arranging for the featured speaker. Unfortunately only seven people were there representing our council, three of whom were wives of members. The other counsel's representation wasn't much better. Next year we will be hosting this special event. With all the things we do this has to rank at the top of the list as one of the most important functions we do and greater participation is needed. I too am guilty of not participating in the past.

We just held our annual pancake breakfast at the Council following mass at St. Francis of Assisi Church on 4/10/11. Father Peter, who has become a huge supporter of our activities, even going so far as to transfer his Knights membership to our council, was in attendance. However as reported to me very few members were at mass and even less at the pancake breakfast. Father Peter deserves better.

It would be nice to see the same attendance at these functions that we get for the St. Patrick's Day celebration, the Christmas party, the Memorial Day picnic, etc.

On that same note I am asking that this year we get as many members as possible to attend the Greenlawn Memorial Day Parade on 5/30/11. We are having our annual Memorial Day picnic on 5/29/11 and I expect the huge turnout we always get. Whether you have served in the Armed Forces or not it is the least we can do to honor those who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

There is no spring golf outing planned this year by our council however those sufferers out there who need their golf fix can sign up for Father Greg's outing with St. Judes Parish in Mastic Beach on 5/11/11.

In a follow-up to the ongoing saga at St.Philip Neri my consigliere Joe Ferrandina has been trying to set up a meeting with representatives of Father Judge council so that we can try to iron this issue out. Not to worry. Jim Feeley has offered to come along as my muscle. We will try to make them an offer they can't refuse.

As my first year as your Grand Knight winds down I hope the faith and confidence you put in me proved not to be misguided. We continue to work toward supporting those in need in the community and much thanks should also be directed towards our fine group of craftsmen in the 4810 Corp. who do so much with so little to keep our building in good shape. Special thanks also needs to be given to our wives, girlfriends and families without whose support we would be unable to continue our noble endeavors. St. Joseph Council 4810 may not be the biggest or the richest council but clearly it is the best.

In closing, on behalf of my family, I would like to extend our personal thanks to all of you for your heartfelt prayers and thoughts during my father-in-law's courageous fight. Peace, Tony

Anger

Dear Brothers:

I pray that, as we are in this glorious Easter Season when we celebrate our Savior's resurrection and our share in His Divine life, that we have cast aside at least some part of our sinful selves which keeps us from loving God and loving our neighbor as we ought. One of the obstacles that keep so many people from advancing in charity and finding peace in their lives is their anger which is not given to God and transformed by His mercy.

All of us experience feelings of anger from time to time; sometimes often. In animals (including humans) this biological response serves the useful purpose of preservation and protection. Such emotions can be brought on by many different occasions and experiences of danger or hostility; or when we experience or perceive an injury or injustice to have occurred to ourselves or others.

Objectively, anger is not necessarily grievous or sinful. True righteous anger can be justifiable and even morally laudable and virtuous; as when our Lord drove the money changers out of the temple (cf. Mark 11:15). What we do with the emotion / feeling makes all the difference. Of this third deadly or capital sin, St. Thomas Aquinas clearly states that it is "The unreasonable desire for vengeance."

"Among humans, anger is usually considered as capable of having an ethical rating inasmuch as it can lead to vengeful actions that are disproportionate to the injury suffered or simply unlawful, e.g., murdering a man for an insulting remark. From this point of view an excessive experience of wrath, the misguided discharge of vengeance, or the objectionable damage done in rage to persons or property could result in sins that would be seriously opposed to charity and justice." (Catholic Encyclopedia)

So much of the goodness God wills us to have in this world is suppressed because too many of His children harbor resentments, grudges, and the desire to get revenge at those who have hurt them. When one allows these thoughts to control them and to plot how they might actually carry out this revenge, they are guilty of the sin of anger. And it will surely destroy the angry person. The sin of anger is spiritually and emotionally blinding and damages our relationship / communication with God and each other.

Forgiveness (and letting go) is the answer. Jesus preached and lived it, again and again. Forgiveness heals relationships and puts the Devil to flight. Forgiveness says, "Let's interrupt the cycle of violence and hatred; block it, stop it." Fight anger with forgiveness. That is what Jesus did on the cross. Make real, concrete steps to heal broken relationships. They will not heal by themselves; by ignoring them. Active forgiveness is absolutely necessary.

St. Francis of Paola (1416-1507) gave some very good advice for how we should live in God's sight: "Put aside your hatred and animosity. Take pains to refrain from sharp words. If they escape your lips, do not be ashamed to let your lips produce the remedy, since they have caused the wounds. Pardon one another so that later on you will not remember the injury. The recollection of an injury is itself wrong. It adds to our anger, nurtures our sin and hates what is good. It is a rusty arrow and a poison for the soul. It puts all virtue to flight. It is like a worm in the mind: it confuses our speech and tears to shreds our petitions to God. It is foreign to charity: it remains planted in the soul like a nail. It is wickedness that never sleeps, sin that never fails. It is indeed a daily death.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY REPORT

by Jim Weis PGK FS

Brothers;

This is hopefully the last report I will be making for 2011. In the four months since my first billing at around the first of the year, we have collected $6,268 of which $3,721 was dues paid and $2,547 were "Gifts". As I say virtually every Voyager, I truly do not know where we would be today without our "Gift Program".

Sadly, today I sent out "8" Notices of intent to Suspend". Despite constant follow-up we seem to lose a few members every year. For just $35 a year in dues, I can't understand why a member would forfeit so much time invested in the Knights. As I have said time and time again, if it is an issue with "finances", all you need do is call me or drop me a note. Especially in this terrible economy of ours today, it is quite understandable that there are many out there who are suffering. This information goes to "nobody" but you and I. It is my sworn duty as an officer from Supreme to keep all financial matters confidential.

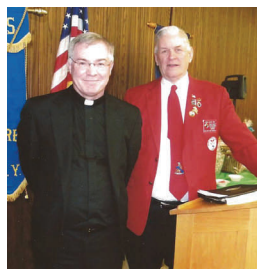

Fraternally yours

Jim Weis

BIRTHRIGHT PARTY AND FUND RAISER

This years Birthright party on March 20th was hosted by St. Thomas More Council, a recent addition to our District.

Guest Speaker at the affair was Msgr. Robert Batule from St. Francis of Assisi and also a Professor at the Seminary in Huntington.

CORPORATE CORNER

by Jim Weis Co-President PGK FS

Brothers;

The next step in major renovations is the downstairs floor. We have selected the tile and border and now await the final painting that needs to be done. New Brothers Peter Gunther and Bill Bootz have volunteered to do this, so it's a good feeling to see new guys getting involved.

The Past Grand Knight Pictures as well as the Plaque for the wives are being redone as we speak. We are still discussing how we are going to put the "Deceased Members" back up, as we are trying to be cost effective but at the same time "respectful" of the importance of this Plaque.

For all the newer member's, or older ones that might have forgotten the Council tends to business at hand with the Knights of Columbus, our local parishes, Member's Dues, and local contributions. The Corporation is involved with the building, Fund Raising ideas, property taxes and Insurance. Each and every member, although not necessarily a "Board Member", has every right to a say at each corporation meeting as we all share in our beautiful building.

The 4810 Corporation is once again an exciting place to be. Meetings are "spirited" but always effective. We invite all members to come down and join us at any Corporation meeting, this year set for the last Tuesday of the month. Hope to see you soon.

WE MISSED YOU

By George Pozderek

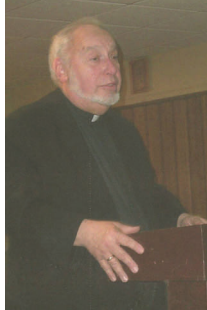

To our Brother Knights who used to go to Bishop Molloy Retreat House, Jamaica Estates for our annual Retreat: Come home to the Retreat House. Those of you who have come in the past know that this is a weekend well spent.

It is a time and place for spiritual renewal and a time of grace. The theme for the retreat this year was "when the well runs dry". We are all in need of spiritual recharging and find it difficult to admit it. I am asking you to consider coming next year and I am inviting those brothers who have never been on a retreat to give it a try. I promise you'll never regret it.

COMMUNION BREAKFAST By George Pozdrec

On Sunday, April 10th, St. Joseph's Council held our Annual Communion Breakfast. Those of us who worked at shopping, cooking and decoration were very disappointed in the poor showing of attendance. There were only twelve members of our Council present and thankfully some members wives. Also a number of friends from St. Francis of Assisi came. Attendance was 25.

Those that did attend enjoyed a delicious breakfast and all you could eat. In the future to avoid these problems if we do not have at least 40-45 people who have made a reservation and paid in advance at least 2 weeks before, the event will be cancelled.

Those of you who did attend enjoyed a wonderful presentation by Fr. Peter Kaczmarek on the Apparitions of the Blessed Mother which have been occurring in the small village of Medjugorje for the past 30 years.

A special thanks to all who helped Bob Serrao, Janet Serrao, Adriana Sorrentino, Marjorie Pozdrec, Jim Flanagan and Frank Brown. P.S ...A special thanks to Charlie for shopping with me.

Lastly, the Communion Breakfast is the time for us as Catholics to recognize our Catholic heritage and honor the presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Memorial Day Picnic 2011

by Jim Weis

Once again St. Joseph's Council will hold our picnic during Memorial Day weekend. As it was last year the picnic will be held on Sunday May 29th, the day before the actual holiday. Our picnic is always held at Elwood Park, which is a large area for the kids to play. As always we will have plenty of burgers, franks, sausage and peppers, chicken, salads and more; and of course soda and juices for the kids, as well as beer for the big kids. We do not charge a set price for this event, but however we do ask for donations and run a couple of raffles. When all is said and done though, we usually break even on the day. We don't do this as a money maker; we do it for the families of our members and their friends. Please, take advantage of us this year. Come join us for the annual St. Joseph Council Picnic at Elwood Park on Sun-

Memorial Day Parade 2011

by Jim Weis

Brothers, please come join us on Monday May 30th, 2011 as we march down Broadway in the annual Memorial Day Parade. This is something that is so vitally important to our council, and to the community. Every member of the Knights should be in attendance that day, as we March and pay tribute to our fallen heroes at the dedication ceremony sponsored by the Greenlawn Fire Department at the conclusion of the parade.

You come down at 8:15, have a donut and cup of coffee and head on up to the parade. The parade kicks off at 9am, and by 10am we are heading back to the council or already in our cars. The Grand Knight Tony Hawkins and I, as well as all the Officers of St. Joseph Council invite you to join us on this day and pay homage to our fallen heroes.

In Memoriam

Patrick J. Finn III (1941-2010)

By: Donald J. Farinacci

January, 2011

Pat Finn would have made a great Knight. Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism – those words could have been his epitaph without the slightest exaggeration. As a star New York Catholic high school athlete and basketball player for St. John's University, he was among the friendliest and most gregarious of young men. It seemed as though he knew everyone and liked the overwhelming majority of them. They liked him too. His love of people knew no ethnic, racial or geographical boundaries. He could strike up a conversation at a sports bar with anyone and before the evening was over, that person would say that he had made a new friend.

Pat was a man of faith – a true Christian. He and his wife, Madeline, thought nothing of taking people who were down on their luck into their home until they were back on their feet again. He was among the laymen who were most instrumental in establishing St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church in Roswell, Georgia in 1978; and there he served as an active volunteer and lay minister for many years.

The homilist and celebrant at Pat's funeral mass at St. Ann's earlier this month was lifelong friend, Msgr. Michael Shugrue, the Catholic Chaplain at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Pat Finn loved to coach and teach young people in team sports. He coached both his own children and others in basketball and baseball in the Roswell community for more than fifteen years, balancing this with his business career. His pupils were well-served. His knowledge and skills as an athlete, combined with an unfailing common touch, made him a natural as a coach and teacher. To the youth of Roswell and Marietta, Georgia, he became a beloved figure.

A former Army Reservist, Pat was a staunch patriot. He often told me that when he did his active duty at Fort Dix, New Jersey, he just wanted to be the best soldier he could be.

Patrick J. Finn III was many things to many people during his 69 years on earth, and he always tried to be the best he could be. One of those things was being my best friend for fifty years. Requiescat in pace.

SAINT PATRICK'S DAY PARTY

NOTICE

Brothers;

At the June 3rd meeting of the St. Joseph Council Knights of Columbus, a vote will be taken on the following issue. The 4810 Corporation will present to the council membership, a proposal, previously discussed with the Grand Knight, the Council Advocate, the 4810 Board Members, and those in attendance during previous council meetings. This motion will be addressed at the next Council meeting pending the vote on June 3rd.

The 4810 Corporation will assume financial and committee guidance responsibility for those activities throughout the Columbian year which are not charity related. The activities assumed by the Corporation and the funds therein received, will be channeled through the 4810 Corporation. In doing so, the councils rent will be re-evaluated and reduced in proportion to the funds brought in by these other non-charitable events.

We have learned that most successful councils throughout Long Island/New York have changed their responsibilities similar to that noted above resulting in more efficient savings and economies for the benefit of the council. This action will not change any Insurance Liabilities for the Council or Corporation. We anticipate that the council members already chairing these events will continue to do so, and we strongly encourage more Council members to step up as Chairpersons for these events.

This amendment will be limited to a one year trial term to evaluate its effectiveness, at which time we will give consideration, and present as a permanent motion.

We urge all membership to attend this June 3rd meeting, as we value your opinion, and understand that several questions will be presented and need to be addressed.

Fraternally yours;

Tony Hawkins, GK
